HERE THEY ARE.

A Trio of Political Scapegoats.
Bryan, Watterson and Woodson Bryan.

Mr. Bryan: Now, Uriah, I give this garrulous gentleman from Kentucky just ten minutes; see to it that he is dragged at that time.

Mr. Henry Watterson: Ah! William, sweet William, it delights me to see your brave face. Adzoos, but how you have grown since I saw you last. Billie—you know that is Thicker's term of endearment, and in my more moments of sincerity I use the language of Thickeray or the old England dramatists—Billie, I say you are the most successful political charlatan—pardon the phrase—in all our history. You have played the role in politics written for me, Billy Boy. You don't know it, but you have. No modesty now, for you have played it well and I admire you and I envy you.

Mr. Bryan: What can I do for you, Mr. Watterson?

Mr. Watterson: Do not be formal William. I am not proud. I let the "old man" call me Henry, if he will promise not to scold and say,

"There now; this here business must stop." I want you to cast aside all familiarity with me; I want you to forget all timidity in my presence. Call me "Hank," and then we can sit here and devise some way of saving the country and incidentally saving the Courier-Journal.

Mr. Bryan: Well, then Hank, are you and the Courier-Journal ready to support me if I repudiate free silver and come out in favor of government by injunction?

The Eminent Kidney and Bladder Specialist.

The Discoverer of Swamp-Root at Work in His Laboratory.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive.

Many sudden deaths are caused by it—either by heart trouble or by kidney trouble. It is the result of kidney disease.

If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poison blood will attack the vital organs, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Then the richness of the body is absorbed.

Then the sufferer has Bright's Disease, the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root the new discovery is the specific for kidney, bladder and urinary troubles. It has cured thousands of apparently hopeless cases, after all other efforts have failed. A double bottle sold free by mail, also book telling of Swamp-Root and its wonderful cures. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. and mention this paper.

COMMENTS

On Bryan's Speech of Acceptance at Indiana-apolis.

Mr. Bray's speech of acceptance at Indianapolis is permeated, in every sentence, with his Populist pessimism. He can not look upon Republican party as being composed of men who have the good of the country, the welfare of its people, and the progress of the nation, quite as much at heart as he possibly can have. He is unable to give the Republican party credit for the same degree of patriotism and lofty devotion to duty that he claims for himself.

Or the other hand, he attributes to the Republican party—to its leaders and members—noting but selfish motives and indefensible ambitions.

He can not see that the differences between American citizens in their political beliefs is solely one of difference in ideas as to the best methods of conserving the common good and promoting the general welfare.

His attitude is, that the Republicans, and all who differ with him, are self-seeking and unpatriotic men, else public thieves and common robbers.

Ex-Governor Bradley's Announcement.

The publication in the Courier-Journal of the 18th instant does me an injustice. There is a record of my trial and the verdict of the jury. Could I have but one opinion? Can any fair-minded man or woman of this State have but one? That one of the greatest judicial farces known in history has been enacted here in my trial, under the forms of law, no well-informed man can doubt. Innocence is no shield with one hundred thousand dollars and the methods of Campbellism against you. The rectitude of one's past life counts for naught. They say Taylor is guilty because he was in his office, and that I am guilty because I was away from mine. This has been a political trial throughout for political purposes, and no greater mistake has been made by the Democratic party since they robbed us of the offices to which we were fairly elected by the people. There are good men and noble women in the Democratic party, and many of them. They are not all bad, far from it. A great many of them do not endorse the theft of the State offices. A great many more will not endorse this mockery of a trial, this prostitution of the courts of justice for certain ends. From the beginning of the campaign until now, I have stood with what little of merit I have had for the rights and liberties of the people. That is my crime. That is the only offense I have committed. This is the only thing proven against me. I swore to that myself in my testimony. I have never lied, and have not now, any apology to make for being true to the trust imposed upon me by a majority of the voters of this State. History will draw its dark lines around those who have outraged me and disgraced the judiciary and blackened the history of the State. I am, very respectfully,

CALEB POWERS "

Kentucky. Judge Little is one of the best informed men in Kentucky. He is an independent Democrat and is thoroughly prepared to discuss the issues of the present campaign. Fordsville will give him a large enthusiastic audience and much good will be accomplished.

Some good men say they will never vote so long as the Goebel law is on the statutes. Now gentlemen, you have permitted yourselves to form a bad conclusion, there is no neutral ground for you to take, it is just the lawless against the law-abiding people. Mr. Goebel originated the law for his own selfish purpose, and he has gone to his reward as a result, but the law is still with us and every man should lend his ballot to bury this act with its sponsor for all time. Vote for Kerkes and have it counted as cast or know the reason why.

Father—When man takes things which belong to another, what do you call him, Billie?

Bilie—I would call him a thief or a robber, pa?

Father—Then you call Mr. Beckham a thief, do you?

Billie—Mr. Taylor got 193,714 votes, while Mr. Beckham only got 191,331 and now Beckham is in Mr. Taylor's chair, if he didn't steal it how did he get it, pa, and if he did steal it, he is a thief.

One might well conclude that in Judge Cantrell's opinion, it is a crime to be elected to office, but it is all right to steal in.

If Beckham did not steal the office of Governor, how did he come in possession of it, when the vote stood, Taylor 193,714, Beckham 191,331.

If every Republican, Brown Democrat, Populist and Prohibitionist were on trial before Judge Cantrell for voting against Goebel, they would be convicted.

ELECTION November 7th, 1900, S. Taylor 193,714 votes; William Goebel 191,331 votes. Taylor's majority 2,383. Where is Goebel's "Herald" will please answer.

If imperialism is the paramount issue in this campaign, please define it, Democrats, so we will know where to find you. "Cholly" Wheeler says it is not definable. Eh!

An indictment has been issued in Cantrell's court against every man that voted for Caleb Powers: the trial has been set for November 6th, and the people of Kentucky will be the jury.

Eight years ago the Democratic platform read free trade—four years ago it read free silver—now it reads imperialism. What will it say four years hence? Democrats please answer.

The Herald says: "It is stated upon reliable authority that only six of the twelve men who gave Caleb Powers his life imprisonment sentence, voted for Goebel last fall." The Courier-Journal is the authority. Is it so reliable? Eh?

If this be a Republican form of government in Kentucky, the "great common people" would welcome an anti-Republican government. The motto of every man should be, "Give me Liberty or give me Death" in the next campaign.

What's become of free silver, Mass Billy? Hush yo' mouth Johnnie, it's imperialism this time; free silver didn't work as I thought it would and I'm awfully scared over imperialism, the people ask me what it is and I can't tell them. Don't ask me any questions.

The paramount issue with the Democratic campaign managers is imperialism," says the Herald. If it would not upset your vial of billingsgate and slander, we should like to interrogate, "What have the Democratic campaign managers done with tree and unlimited coinage of silver a 16 to 1?"

Why He Quits the Camp.

BEECH GROVE, KY., AUGUST 15, 1890.
Hon. J. W. BOSTON, Chairman Democratic Committee of McLean County:
Sir—In resigning as committeeman for Beech

Caleb Powers to the Public

"TO THE PUBLIC:—I am asked my opinion concerning my trial and the verdict of the jury. Could I have but one opinion? Can any fair-minded man or woman of this State have but one? That one of the greatest judicial farces known in history has been enacted here in my trial, under the forms of law, no well-informed man can doubt. Innocence is no shield with one hundred thousand dollars and the methods of Campbellism against you. The rectitude of one's past life counts for naught. They say Taylor is guilty because he was in his office, and that I am guilty because I was away from mine. This has been a political trial throughout for political purposes, and no greater mistake has been made by the Democratic party since they robbed us of the offices to which we were fairly elected by the people. There are good men and noble women in the Democratic party, and many of them. They are not all bad, far from it. A great many of them do not endorse the theft of the State offices. A great many more will not endorse this mockery of a trial, this prostitution of the courts of justice for certain ends. From the beginning of the campaign until now, I have stood with what little of merit I have had for the rights and liberties of the people. That is my crime. That is the only offense I have committed. This is the only thing proven against me. I swore to that myself in my testimony. I have never lied, and have not now, any apology to make for being true to the trust imposed upon me by a majority of the voters of this State. History will draw its dark lines around those who have outraged me and disgraced the judiciary and blackened the history of the State. I am, very respectfully, not forgotten how Mr. Ringo stepped upon the troubled waters on the 25th of last October, without cause or provocation and declared that,

"The sole scope and purpose of the Goebel legislation was to give to the people of Kentucky the most honest election. The people of Kentucky have not been hoodwinked by the Goebel law. The people of Kentucky know enough. The cry of fraud is only the cry of 'stop that' on the part of those who can no longer�� abide the ballot."

Fellow countrymen you have been made aware of the purposes of this law by its application in an extreme case of emergency. Every man, who read the above, knows it to be absolutely false, and we believe its author knew it himself for he is too good a lawyer to know so little about the possibilities of the act. Every honest, sensible, fair-thinking man knew that there was a great possibility of fraud, they believed then as they know now, that the law was enacted for the purpose of making Bill Goebel Governor, whether the people willed it or not. Mr. Ringo to the contrary notwithstanding. The acts of Hoerz and Caruth in Louisville, on the evening before the election, assertions of Goebel, Watterson and Blackburn prove conclusively that the intention of the law, was to elect under any and all circumstances, Democratic officials.

But this pet measure of Mr. Goebel's has had its death warrant signed in the call for an extra session. Many who have defended it are now ashamed of it, and many are openly denouncing it. All concede it to be the "fruitful source of all our woes." Who decides this law now? None—not even the most uncompromising and uncompromising partisans. The whole affair is a farce. Mr. Beckham is a farce himself. He is attempting to atoms for accepting stolen goods, by calling an extra session to amend the law which stole for him the office of Governor. No, no, Mr. Beckham, you cannot stone for your crime and hold up to the stolen goods. Surrender stolen office to the rightful owner. Quit the told, wash your hands of the infamy which now covers them and then you may ask for mercy and for forgiveness at the hands of an outraged and indignant people, and not 'til then.

The Powers Trial.

After six weeks work in the Powers trial, the jury returned a verdict of guilty and fixed his punishment at a life sentence in the State prison. The verdict is shocking to every free and right thinking citizen. Not only has the action of the jury been declared to be infamous by Republicans and Brown Democrats, but even Goebel supporters say it is unjust. There is no doubt of the innocence of the man found guilty, nothing was proven on him, even by the star witnesses,—except that he was instrumental in bringing the mountain men to Frankfort to address their wrongs, and this he admitted himself to have done. The evidence against Powers, including that of Weaver, who stated that he was in Frankfort on the day of the assassination and saw a rifle barrel extending from the window of the Secretary of State's office, but who was proven to have been in Grayson Springs on that day, was not sufficient to have hung the meanest cur that could have been found anywhere, yet this evidence was admitted and the Commonwealth, including Judge Cantrell, knew every word to be false, intentionally false.

The jury that passed on this case was composed of eleven Goebel Democrats and one Goebel Republican, to be more specific, it was packed jury, it was a jury selected because of the extreme need of a prearranged verdict. This jury, which will go down in history as the most biased and partisan body of men ever empowered to administer justice, was selected in the same manner as the grand jury that indicted Powers. The regular jurors, who had been selected for the Scott circuit court were set aside, a Goebel sheriff was put in the field to summon a jury from a district known to be uncompromising Goebelites, and Judge Cantrell permitted this to be done, or was really the sole author and mentor of this un-American procedure in court. This jury remained out of court only a few minutes, perhaps long enough to sign the verdict which had been agreed upon. Less than one hour was consumed in this work, after six weeks of extraordinary dicker, the jury is ready to return a unanimous verdict of guilty. Guilty of what? For being elected Secretary of State and for having asked his countrymen to come in a body and protest against the robbery being perpetrated in the name of the Commonwealth and absolutely nothing else.

Caleb Powers was tried "under the terms of law," but not the spirit, the verdict was agreed upon and signed "under the terms of law," but not the spirit. The persecutors of Christ were careful to do the same. "Under the terms of law" he was tried, sentenced and put to death. But all this was done by his personal enemies. So was it with Caleb Powers. The court's actions were partisan and biased. Twice did he fine Col. Owens for the defense, for that which he allowed Tom Campbell and his co-counsel to do unnoticed. This case will be remembered as the blackest ever recorded in American history. It is little short of infamous; it is disgraceful to say the least. This has been done in the name of $100,000 and the Democratic party, which the good people, the law-abiding, God-fearing Christian people will rebuke at the polls on the 6th of next November.

Kentucky stands horror stricken today before these revolutionary times, and well she may. She stands disgraced in the sight of every civilized nation. And yet, the sole cause of all this trouble is that infamous and internal Goebel law. That instrument brought about these revolutionary times, it brought about the death of its author, the ballot and civil liberty. Another case has been called and the people, yet remain passive, the persecutors have full sway, as they did in Rome. One day an end will come to all this farce, and we trust it may not be far distant.

WILL DROP BRYAN.

Senator Stewart, of Nevada,
Says He Will Vote for McKinley.

New York, Aug. 23.—Senator William M. Stewart, of Nevada, called at Republican headquarters today and said he had decided to vote for President McKinley. He made a statement in part as follows:

"The United States went to war with Spain urged on by the Democratic party. The popularity of the war was such that Mr. Bryan joined the army. The war was successful. A treaty of peace was entered into where the United States agreed to pay $20,000,000 and accept the sovereignty and public property of Spain in the Philippine archipelago. There was opposition to the ratification of the treaty. Mr. Bryan came to Washington and persuaded his Democratic friends to vote for the treaty, and it was through his influence that the treaty was originally ratified. Then became the duty of the United States to maintain law and order and protect the lives and property of all residents in the islands, whether native or foreign born. The United States, at the time of the ratification of the treaty, held military possession of Manila and immediately after such ratification assumed the sovereignty of the islands. The people of the United States, and particularly of the Pacific coast, became entitled to the vast commerce of the Pacific Ocean, in which the Philippines furnished the key.

"One Aguinaldo had raised a rebellion in Luzon against Spain before the commencement of the Spanish war with the United States. This adventurer had sold out or settled the rebellion with Spain for $400,000 before Dewey set sail for Manila, and as a part of the bargain with Spain agreed to leave the islands and never return.

AID FROM THIS COUNTRY.

"Dewey took the wily agitator back to the islands, supposing, as a matter of course, that Aguinaldo would naturally be an enemy of Spain and a friend of the United States. In this, Admiral Dewey was mistaken. Aguinaldo, as soon as he landed on his native soil, organized a rebellion against the United States, which would have been of little consequence if he had not been able to obtain comfort and aid in this country.

"An organization was formed in the United States called the Anti-imperial League, which has for the last two years co-operated with Aguinaldo's Tagalog junta, with headquarters at Hongkong, to supply literature and materials of war for Aguinaldo.

"President McKinley had no authority to put out Aguinaldo's rebellion before the commencement of the Spanish war with the United States, but was bound by the Treaty (which was the supreme law of the land) to maintain law and order and protect life and property in the islands. It required a large army and the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars to put down Aguinaldo's rebellion.

"The assistance and encouragement we received from the Anti-imperial League and the enemies of the United States, both at home and abroad, made his barbarous and irregular war bloody and expensive. Congress, however, made all necessary appropriations, providing the executive men and money to maintain the authority in the Philippines.

WHAT THEY CALL "IMPERIALISM."

"The so-called anti-imperialism declared that the policy pursued by the Government to put down the rebellion and maintain law and order in all territories of the United States, without regard to the time when such territories were acquired, was 'imperialism,' and that any use of the army to maintain law and order, however necessary, was 'imperialism,' and giving aid and comfort to rebels in arms against the United States was maintaining the principles of the Declaration of Independence."

"Mr. Bryan's unparalleled campaign for the principles of the Chicago platform and his insistence upon the adoption of that platform at Kansas City, induced the people to suppose the campaign of 1900 would be conducted on the issues of 1896. In this it seems they were mistaken."

Mrs. E. Barbour and daughter, Miss Carolyn, of Leitchfield, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams have left for a visit to Cral Springs, Ill.

At the recent examination, three firsts, eight second and two third class certificates, were issued by the board. There were only fourteen applicants for a state certificate and thirteen for county certificates. No failures.

The Louisville Elks will give a second Industrial exposition and carnival beginning September 17th and concluding September 29th. This will be worth attending, low rates on the railroads will be given and every one should be planning to spend a few days in the city. Last fall the Elks had a grand success and there is no reason why this should not be much better.

Mr. Thomas Petrie and Miss Annie Fogle left yesterday for Louisville where they were married Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. Mr. Petrie has been clerking in the R. T. Collins dry goods store for several months. Miss Fogle is a daughter of Mr. J. E. Fogle, our esteemed fellow citizen.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McKinney Beaver Dam, were shocked last Saturday when they learned of the horrible fate of their son, Ivan. He went in Green river at Rochester, bathing along Saturday afternoon and his absence caused some apprehensions, when a search was made his clothing was found on the beach where he went into bath, his body was recovered and buried at Rochester. This is a very sad accident for the boy was a very promising young man. Mr. and Mrs. McKinney have the sympathy of many friends in their misfortune.

Good Roads.

We desire again to call the attention of the farmers to the subject of good roads. In the county of Daviess the roads are worked by tax; in Henderson the same system is employed; Breckinridge the roads have been worked by tax to the satisfaction of the farmers. Many other counties in the State have adopted this system, in fact all the up to date counties are repairing their roads in this manner. The roads are now worked the country people bear the whole burden and the citizens of town do the traveling largely.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL.

A Sharp Criticism and Assignment of Court, Jury and Attorneys.

GROUND FOR NEW TRIAL.

At 11:20 Caleb Powers and his lawyers entered, and Mr. Kinkhead made the formal motion for a new trial for his client.

In support of the motion he rendered a list of grounds, as follows:

First—Because the verdict is against the law.

Second—That the verdict is against the evidence.

Third—That the verdict is against both the law and the evidence.

Fourth—Because the court erred in refusing the first eleven of the twelve instructions offered by the defense. Because the court erred in giving instructions numbered 1 and 9. Because the court erred in changing and amending instruction No. 7 after four of the five arguments of the defense had been made.

Because the court admitted incompetent and irrelevant evidence and refused to admit competent evidence and testimony.

Because the court overruled the motion for a continuance.

Because the court refused to recognize the pardon issued by W. S. Taylor.

Because the court overruled the motion of the defense to draw the remaining names from the jury wheel after the first panel had been exhausted.

Because the court overruled the defendant's demurred to to indictments against him.

Because the court overruled the motion for peremptory instructions of a quittal.

That he was prevented from having a fair trial by reason of the fact that divers jurymen expressed their opinions as shown by the accompanying affidavits.

THE FINAL GROUND.

Because the court was guilty of misconduct in passing an opinion upon the evidence thereto given, using the word "mob," referring to the mountain petitioners in the presence of the jury.

Because the court referred in the presence of the jury to a statement made by witness John Stamper as a "stump speech."

Because the court during the examination of Powers, said, in the presence of the jury, that "This witness (meaning the defendant) always presents his statements by some sort of explanation, and I have tried time and time again that if he wants to make an explanation it should come in after he answers his question."

And finally because during the testimony of Wharton Golden, the Judge in the presence of the jury, in referring to a newspaper editor mentioned by Golden, said, "I expect if he had been whipped the editor it would be what he ought to have had." And when the defense excepted to this opinion the court answered, "You can expect all you want."

The document closed with a statement signed by counsel that by these actions the substantial rights of the prisoner had been prejudiced and had been deprived of a fair trial.

THE AFFIDAVITS FILED.

Shors of their legal verbiage, the affidavits set forth the following declarations:

That T. Lucas heard J. T. Mulberry say "he believed they were all guilty and should be hung from Taylor down."

That Henry Davis and A. R. Roland heard J. P. Crosswhite say "All the accused were guilty, and if he had his way he would hang them all."

That James Chipley, John Truitt, James Covington and Joe Bradford heard Harris Musselman say "The last God damn one of them ought to be hung."

That Samuel D. Lenville and Grant Shoemaker heard C. P. Munson say "They ought to hang them all."

Also that James Reed, jailer of Scott county, heard Munson say "they" meaning the men in jail here, charged with the murder, "were all guilty and ought to be punished."

That Samuel D. Lenville and M. L. Lenville heard George Murphy say "They were all guilty and ought to be hung."

That W. W. Ellington heard A. W. Craig say "They had the men that killed Goebel and ought to punish them."

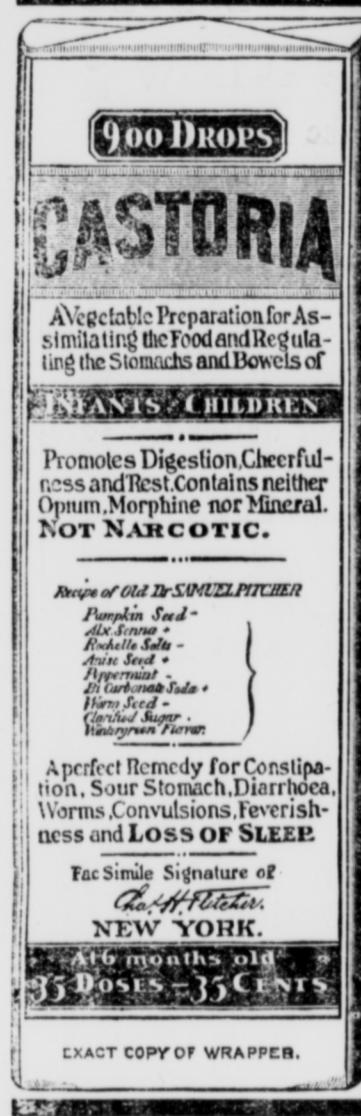

All of these statements were alleged to have been made before the veniremen were summoned for jury duty, but the last one of all was of a different nature.

Robert Anderson made affidavit that A. W. Craig, while waiting in the jury room after having been summoned, said that if accepted as a juror he would not be governed by the evidence or argument. But would frame his verdict in accordance with the instructions of Judge Cantrell, as he (Craig) believes Cantrell knew more about the case than anybody.

There was another walt after the defense tendered its papers, as the lawyers for prosecution took some time in examining them.

It was noticed that "Ab" Craig, one of the jurors against whom charges are made, went with the representatives of the Commonwealth when they retired to consult.

Old lawyers say a stronger bill of exceptions was never presented in a Kentucky law court than the one which Franklin and Hendricks carried with them into their conference.

TIME AND SPACE are practically annihilated by the ocean cables and land telegraph systems which now belt the circumference of Old Earth in many different directions. "Foreign parts" are no longer foreign in the old meaning of the term. Europe, Africa, Asia, are "next door" to us. What happens there-to-day we know to-morrow—if we read THE CHICAGO RECORD, whose Special Cable Correspondents are located in every important city in the world outside of the United States. No other American newspaper ever attempted so extensive a service; and it is supplemented by the regular foreign news service of The Associated Press. For accurate intelligence of the stirring events which are shaking the nations—or wars and rumors of wars—or the threatening dissolution of old governments and the establishment of new—or the onward sweep of the race in all parts of the world—the one medium of the most satisfactory information is the enterprising, "up-to-date" American newspaper, THE CHICAGO RECORD.

FREE A large map of the world on Mercator's Projection, about 30x48 inches, beautifully printed in colors, with a large-scale map of the United States, and a copy of the "Chicago Record," all gratis on receipt of remittance accompanied by two-cent stamps to cover postage and wrapping. The maps illustrate clearly how comprehensively the special cable service of THE CHICAGO RECORD covers the entire civilized world. Address THE CHICAGO RECORD, 15 Clinton Street, Chicago.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 24

BRYAN IN 1896
WAS A FALSE PROPHET

If the prophecies and predictions made by Mr. Bryan had proven to be true, the gold standard, which has been in operation ever since he uttered them, would have produced the following direful results to wit:

It would have decreased the purchasing power of the gold dollar.—Madison Square Garden speech.

It would have been as certain to make prices fall as a stone is to fall, when it is thrown into the air.—New Haven, Iowa speech.

It would have increased the debts of the people and lessened their ability to pay them.—Baltimore speech.

It would have made times harder and harder.—Same speech.

It would have starved everybody except the money changers and the money owners.—New Haven, Conn. speech.

It would have transferred the bread which one man earns to another man who had not earned it.—Hartford, Conn. speech.

It would have made the rich richer and the poor poorer.—Newark, Ohio speech.

It would have decreased the number who are happy and increased the number who are in distress.—Same speech.

It would have destroyed the hope of the toiling masses.—Minneapolis, Minn. speech.

It would have destroyed the opportunity to work.—Same speech.

It would have increased the number of idle men.—Same speech.

It would have decreased the volume of standard money.—Same speech.

It would have encouraged the hoarding of money.—Hornellsville, N. Y. speech.

It would have made it more difficult for the farmer to live.—Madison Square Garden speech.

It would have injured the wage-earner.—Same speech.

It would have made employment less certain.—Same speech.

It would have discouraged enterprise.—Same speech.

It would have paralyzed industry.—Same speech.

It would have lessened the ability of husbands and wives to pay off the mortgages on their homes.—Minneapolis speech.

It would have lessened the permanency of such salaries.—Same speech.

It would have injured or destroyed the manufacturers of agricultural implements, wagons and buggies.—Madison Square Garden speech.

It would have injured the wage-earner.—Same speech.

It would have made it impossible for husbands and wives to pay off the mortgages on their homes.—Minneapolis speech.

It would have increased the danger of depositors losing their deposits in savings banks.—Same speech.

It would have compelled depositors in savings banks to withdraw their deposits to pay living expenses.—Same speech.

It would have lessened the salaries of those engaged in business occupations and would have lessened the permanency of such salaries.—Same speech.

It would have increased the danger of depositors losing their deposits in savings banks.—Same speech.

It would have compelled depositors in savings banks to withdraw their deposits to pay living expenses.—Same speech.

It would have lessened the ability of the masses to buy goods, thereby lessening the number of commercial traveling men.—Indianapolis speech to traveling men.

It would have made it necessary to evict the closing up of our public schools.—Mormon, Ill. speech.

It would have made it more probable to loan money or to invest it than to invest it in enterprise or property.—Syracuse, N. Y. speech.

It would have made dearer money, heavier property, harder times, more people out of work, more people destitute, more people desperate, more crime.—Minneapolis speech to ladies.

It would have lowered the standard of civilization in this country.—Madison Square Garden speech.

It would have lessened the ability of the masses to buy goods, thereby lessening the number of commercial traveling men.—Indianapolis speech to traveling men.

It would have lessened the ability of the masses to buy goods, thereby lessening the number of commercial traveling men.—Indianapolis speech to traveling men.
